

English Lesson 3- Friday 8th January

Welcome to English lesson 3.
In this lesson we will be looking at how to edit and uplevel work writing effectively.

Didn't do yesterday's lesson?
There will be a text to edit on the worksheet for you to try and edit and uplevel.

How do we uplevel our writing effectively?

- Higher level/more appropriate vocabulary
- Extending sentences
- Adding extra detail
- Changing the order of our sentences
- Adding punctuation to make it clear to the reader

Which is better? Select the more appropriate vocabulary to describe the image.

Wooden desk or Ornate desk

Lots of stairs or Arching staircases

Towering shelves, full of books or A vast amount of books

An intricate candelabra or An interesting lightshade

Miss Rea's turn to uplevel the text

The candlelight made the room glow orange and made it feel nice. The wooden desk was in the middle of the room and it was pretty. The stairs were on both sides and led to really tall shelves full of books which were all the colours of the rainbow.

UPEVEL

Your turn- upevel this text

The darkish room was lit by some candles which flickered as the angry teacher walked backwards and forwards. The kids sat up, not wanting to be told off. Covering the old dungeons walls were lots of potions of all different colours. At the front was a big book full of spells for the children to learn.
